It is not intended to guarantee, increase or maximize reimbursement by any payer. Individual coding decisions should be based upon diagnosis and treatment of individual patients. Organogenesis does not warrant, promise, guarantee, or make any statement that the use of this information will result in coverage or payment or that any payment received will cover providers' costs. Organogenesis is not responsible for any action providers take in billing for, or, appealing claims. Physicians are responsible for compliance with Medicare and other payer rules and requirements and for the information submitted with all claims and appeals. Before any claims or appeals are submitted, physicians should review official payer instructions and requirements, should confirm the accuracy of their coding or billing practices with these payers, and should use independent judgment when selecting codes that most appropriately describe the services or supplies furnished to a patient. It is the provider's responsibility to determine and document that the services provided are medically necessary and that the site of service is appropriate. Laws, regulations and policies concerning reimbursement are complex and are updated frequently. While we have made an effort to be current as of the issue date of this document, the information may not be current when you view it. Providers are encouraged to contact third-party payers for specific information on their coverage, coding and payment policies. Please consult with your legal counsel or reimbursement specialists for any reimbursement or billing questions. Rev March 2026
